Proposal Evaluation Process

Proposals and all associated application materials will be evaluated by the Foundation staff prior to submitting the project to the Chrest Foundation Board of Directors for a final vote. In some cases, the Foundation may ask for assistance from outside trusted advisors and/or experts who are knowledgeable about the fields concerned in evaluating proposals and projects. This external review process is handled in a confidential manner. Please inform Foundation staff should the proposal and associated materials contain specific information that you wish to remain private.
